New York Private Trust Company Adds New Team Members to Support Rapid Growth

The Company Experiences Further Growth in the New Year

April 20, 2015

NEW YORK-- New York Private Trust Company announced today that Damian Gallagher has joined the firm as an Investment Analyst, overseeing third-party investment manager due diligence and trust account investment reviews. The company has also hired Richard Rodeschini as an Operations Analyst, Sheyla Roman as a Marketing Assistant and Tara Bolinski as a Trust Administration Assistant, signaling the company's recent rapid growth.

Richard Trumpler, Chief Operating Officer, said: "It is exciting to welcome such talented new team members to New York Private Trust Company. The company continues to expand its ranks in order to offer the highest level of client service, and we are thrilled to be able to deliver even more for our clients with these new additions."

Prior to joining New York Private Trust, Mr. Gallagher worked with BNY Mellon in the investment fund accounting department. He is a graduate from the University of Delaware with a dual Bachelor of Science degree in Finance and International Business and is currently a candidate in the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) program.

As an Operations Analyst, Mr. Rodeschini supports all trust and investment-related operational functions, including reconciliations, statements and new trust account setup. Prior to joining New York Private Trust Company, Mr. Rodeschini was a member of the Securities Processing Team at Rokit Solutions, LLC, where he was responsible for daily trade and income processing. Mr. Rodeschini graduated with a BA in Business Administration from Saint Michael's College and was a member of the men's ice hockey team.

As a Marketing Assistant, Ms. Roman is responsible for supporting all of New York Private Trust Company's marketing and sales activities. Ms. Roman previously worked as a Marketing Services Associate for UBS Financial Services Inc., where she provided technical support to Financial Advisors, including developing and distributing their marketing materials. Ms. Roman is well versed in identifying market trends and customer needs to create highly-targeted marketing campaigns and has experience in customer support and executive administration roles. She received a Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing and General Business from New Jersey City University.

As a Trust Administration Assistant working in the company's Wilmington, Delaware, office, Mrs. Bolinski supports the team that works with clients and beneficiaries in the administration of their trust accounts. She previously worked as a Supports Coordinator Supervisor for Quality Progressions, a nonprofit that helps clients with intellectual disabilities and special needs obtain supportive services. She received a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice from York College of Pennsylvania.
