

New York Private Trust Names Richard W. Kemp Chief Compliance Officer

July 16, 2015

NEW YORK - New York Private Trust Company announced today that Richard Kemp has joined the firm as General Counsel and Chief Compliance Officer, with responsibility for managing all compliance, risk management and legal issues. Mr. Kemp has four decades of experience in the banking and financial services industries and has detailed knowledge of complex trust, investment, insurance, and related offerings for high-net-worth clients. In this new position, he will report to Chief Executive Officer Irvin A. Leonard.

Prior to joining New York Private Trust, a Delaware-chartered trust company, Mr. Kemp served as a Director and Senior Trust Officer for UBS Trust Company in Wilmington, DE. While with UBS Trust Company, Mr. Kemp was responsible for the effective and fully compliant administration of trusts for high-net-worth clients. Previously, Mr. Kemp worked for HSBC and JP Morgan Chase in fiduciary investment product development and management roles. Mr. Kemp began his career with the United States Trust Company of New York.

Richard Trumpler, Chief Operating Officer, said: “Mr. Kemp brings invaluable experience in the delivery of fiduciary services, especially in the areas of fiduciary taxation and serving international clients. He represents a significant enhancement to New York Private Trust’s already robust trust administration capability, and we are delighted to welcome such a distinguished veteran to our team.”

Mr. Kemp received a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Taxation and Accounting from Pace University, and a Juris Doctorate from Seton Hall University Law School. He is a graduate of Duke University’s Fuqua School of Business Executive Manager Development Program.

Mr. Kemp is a member of the New York State Bar Association, and admitted to the State of New York, United States Tax Court. He is also a member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) and the Estate Planning Council of Delaware.
